Destruction of Jerusalem. One could hardly have imagined that the perserted, as it has been, by so distinguished on remains unexpended; adopted. a savan as Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. In bis lecture upon the destruction of Jerusalem, he says that "six years after the birth of our Lord, Judea and Samaria became a Roman province, under subordinate governors, the most famous of whom was Pontius Pilate." So far from this being so, it was about fifey years prior to the birth of Christ that the Jews "lost their liberty and became sulject to the Romans." The famous Herod, who died the year Christ was born, was for 37 years King of the Jews by the mere sufferance of the Ceasars. Herods three sons, by like grants, succeeded to their fathers possestions, two of whom were subsequently banished by the same authority; but not until the first one banished, Archelus, had been ten yeare, ethnarch of Judea, the others being tetrarchs. Archelus was succeeded by the procurators Coponius, Marcus, Rufus, and Gratus, and "after be had tarried in Judea eleven years, Pontius Pilate came as After Pilate "had tarried ten years in Judea, be made haste to Rome, in obedience to the orders of Vitellius, President of Syria, who also deprived Caiaphus rus were the procurators that succeeded Pilate; and it was because of the intolerable oppressions of Florus that the Jews revolted from Nero, who, by the way, with all his faults, does not appear to have been very hard upon the Jews. From the remarks of the lecturer it might fairly be inferred that Pilate was appointed governor six years after the birth of Christ. and as Christ was sentenced by Pilate, it would make him governor for about thirty years, whereas he only served ten years. The palace of the Kings," referred to by the lecturer, has, also, much of fancy about it. Hered, with the exception of one or two temp rary usurpers, "standing solitary and alone" as King, during a period of 700 years.

The New York Times of Monday says:-"The New York bids for the $5,000,000 United States Treasury Bills to be awarded at Washington, at noon to day, closed at the Sub Treasurer's office on Saturday afternoon, and amount to the large total of $16,400,000. Over ten millions were added to the previous bids on Saturday. If the bids from the neighboring cities are in anything like the same proportior, the aggregate offers. to be opened by the Secretary to-day, will not be short of twenty-five millions, or five-fold the amount asked for. The previous award of $5,000,000 on the 15th of March, was made from an offering of only $7,500,000.

The change of disposition among private capitalists and bankers toward a Government investment, at a moderate rate of interest, is another evidence of the settled ease in the market for money, and the effect of the late crisis upon its active employment in general trade and in new enterprises. The large tenders to the Government to-day adds to the interest which is 'elt in the rates of interest at which the awards will be made The surmise on 'Change on Saturday afternoon, after the total offer from this city was made known, was 4@41 per cent.

The returns of the Insurance companies of New York State, for the year ending December 31st. 1857, show the progress which this system is making. Ten companies which transact business in New York city, represent an accumulated capital of $14,540,701, and the amount insured is $110,024,014; number of policies issued in 1857, 7,000, insuring $20,478,857; total income in 1587, $3, 965,000, and the claims paid on deaths within the year $1,153,653.

The proposals for the five millions of Treasury notes were opened at Washington, on Mondry, and all at a rate under 5 per cent. interest, amounting to over $4,500,000, were awarded. The balance was distributed among the 5 per cent. bids, of which it appears there was the large amount of about $15,000,000. The lowest bids were at 31 per cent.

To the Independent Voters of the Town and County of Alexandria : - FELLOW CITIZENS .-As the election of County Officers is near at hand, and being before you as a candidate for the Sheriffalty. I think it due to you, as well as myself, that my position should be more distinctly understood. Yielding to the solicitation of many of my friends, without distinction of party, I consented to become a candidate, on the express condition that my claims to the office should not be biased by party considerations, but that I should be left to occupy an independent position. I was impelled to this course from a thorough knowledge of the importance of the office, and having long been satisfied of the evils resulting to the public interest by the selection of incompetent men, because of their connection with some dominant party, I determined to rest my claims upon your judgment, rather than upon the endorsement of either of the political parties now in existence. At the time I announced myself a candidate, my intention was to see as many of the voters as possible, but the position I now occupy precludes the possi bility of my seeing you in person, and I shall be compelled to rely upon your discrimination in the coming contest. If, in your judgment, the experience of thirty years of active commercial business, and a residence among you of over twenty years, entitle me to your support, I shall be thankful; and, if elected, will bring to the office the best of my ability in the discharge of its duties. The matter now rests with you and in your decision I shall cheerfully acqui ROBERT CRUPPER.
